1. Handwriting Cum Dictation Contest:- 3th December'25 (Wednesday)

Neat and tidy, row by row,

Watch my handwriting grow and grow!

From past few months we have started conducting the Handwriting Contest to motivate kids to write in good handwriting. We request parents to focus on the proper formation of each letter maintaining the red and blue lines. It is observed that no absolute changes are coming in the writing style of the kids. Just be aware that writing in proper format is very important in future and no handwriting class can help to make it better. Now is the time to act, kids need little more motivation to put effort.

Mantra is Write beautiful!! Write well!! All the Best!!

5.00pm- Purple, White and Orange Orrchid

7. Rhymes and Carol Competition:- 17th December'25 (Wednesday)

For the upcoming Rhymes Contest, children will be judged with greater weightage on actions and expressions along with clear recitation. As children enjoy doing actions in class, they know it all. With your guidance at home, they can learn to channel actions meaningfully into their performance.

To help your child prepare:

1. Encourage daily short practice for fluency.
2. Add simple and relevant actions (folded hands for “Namaste,” flying hands for birds, etc.).
3. Use small props (flower, toy, or cut-out). This helps them to remember which rhymes they have prepared instead of getting influenced with their peers.
4. Practise expressions — smiles, eye contact, and confidence.
5. Give chances for independent practice in front of the mirror to build stage confidence.

With these small efforts, children will not only remember their rhymes better but also perform with joy, discipline and confidence on stage.

This is Christmas time and let kids sing some carols for Lord Jesus and get into the vibes of Christmas. So this month we have carol competition instead of shlokas. The name and link of carols are provided, practice and enjoy.

8. Puzzle Contest:- 18th December'25 (Thursday)

Piece by piece, fit them right—
Let your smart mind shine bright!

The children need to solve the puzzles

9. Into the Sea Day:- 19th December'25 (Friday)

The fish in the sea go swim, swim, swim,
The lobsters in the sea go pinch, pinch, pinch,
Octopus in the sea goes wiggle, wiggle, wiggle,
All day long.

Kids are going to dress up as sea animal of their choice and will do fun activities along with learning about them.

10. Orrchid Kit Contest:- 22nd December'25 (Monday)

To prepare your child, we request you to make them practice the current month's kit activities at least thrice a week. Just 10–15 minutes per session is enough to help them gain clarity and precision in understanding the Theme of the Month.

This regular practice not only builds confidence but also helps your child stand out during the contest. Let's make it a part of their weekly routine and support their learning journey together!

LITTLE TURTLE:

A simple finger play about turtles and their shells emphasizes their hiding nature which fascinates children. Hold one hand in a fist, with the thumb tucked in. Tell your child that it is a pretend turtle. Encourage him/her to make a turtle too. Chant the following verse:-

- *'Little turtle come out to play.....don't stay in your house all day.'
- *Rub the top of your fist with the other hand in a circular motion to get the turtle to come out to play. Next pop your thumb out like the head of a turtle.
- *Pretend to feed it and let the little turtle (thumb) give your child a little kiss on the cheek.
- *Have the little turtle go back home with the following verse:-
- *Little turtle go back inside, that's where you like to hide!
